

Andrea Basulto

age 24 years old location San Bernardino, CA

Bio

Andrea is a 2nd grade teacher at Lincoln Elementary. Her students have trouble concentrating in class and a lot of them have problems at home that are reflected in the classroom. She does not have enough time to focus on all of her students individually, even though a lot of them need individualized help, because she needs to make sure that she gets her lessons in for the sake of the other students.

Motivations

- Wants to make a positive impact on her students' education
- Worried about the future of the world
- Wants to provide the students guidance while they are young

Frustrations

- School she works at is understaffed
- No additional support
- Inadequate training for dealing with a lot of problems that come up in the classroom
